

2020 IAMUS Program: Call for Participants

Batumi, GEORGIA, October 21 - 23

Summary:

The International Association of Maritime Universities Students (IAMUS) program is a part of the IAMU AGA2020 intended for students from IAMU member universities to present their work. It is an opportunity for students to participate in maritime education and training related activities, meet and exchange ideas with students and staff from other institutions, and meet different industry members and experience other cultures. Kobe University will send two students to the program in Georgia. See below for details on how to apply.

Information:

Students who want to participate should submit an abstract (minimum 400 words, maximum two A4 pages) that clearly explains the content and relevance of the paper. The abstract should also contain:

Title of the paper, Student name(s) and email addresses, Name of university, and up to 6-7 keywords relevant to the paper topic

Possible Topics:

- Maritime education and training (MET)
- Research in MET
- Information Technologies
- Automation control
- Logistics and management
- New trends in maritime transport
- Human element
- Maritime English
- Culture and communication in maritime industry
- Other maritime-related topics

How to apply:

Please send your abstract to Prof. Matthew Rooks (rooks@maritime.kobe-u.ac.jp) by March 10.

Notification will be sent to successful applicants in April, and final paper submission will be sent to IAMUS on May 1. Please see the IAMU AGA21 website for further details: <http://iamu.bsma.edu.ge>

Please ask Prof. Matthew Rooks if you have questions related to IAMUS or IAMU.
